

Replies received in July 22,2023, Winlink Saturday exercise from “Elmer Fudd, shelter director”:

That crazy duck came to the shelter with 6 little ducklings. They were so cute I put my baking pan away!

Ghost Stories

Fudd reports B. Bunny removed his glove and smacked him repeatedly, stating "this means war."

Elmer Fudd reports 12 family units so far in the shelter. One family just moved into the area from Washington State with their four children, ages 13 to 2. They are extremally grateful for the quick response and friendliness of all the volunteers and are looking forward to setting down their roots in Eastern Iowa.

Hello All, Thanks for this practice on using the ICS 213 and replies.

WE ARE CURRENTLY UNDER A SEVERE TORNADO WARNING AND UNDER THE PROTECTION OF A COMMUNITY SHELTRER. WE ARE FED, WATERED AND SAFE.WE HAVE NO INFORMATION AS STATUS OF HOUSE AND COMMUNITY, WILL CONTACT YOU WHEN POSSIBLE WITH MORE INFORMATIO

God Bless America

Elmer Fudd reply: Due to flooding 'big foot' lost his habitat. He came to my shelterfor a while. He did not like the warm food but would be happy if I could find him a tastey 'wabbit'. He also would not sleep on a cot because they were too short. Slept on the floor.